

The What if?

For any topic or question, ask a What If? question - It can be silly or serious

The Reverse

When making a list, think about the topic or question in the opposite way. Use comments like 'cannot', 'never' and 'not'.

The Alphabet

List words from A-Z related to the topic being discussed.

The B.A.R

B-Bigger; A-Add; R-Remove or Replace. Use this key when discussing an object or a piece of writing.

The Disadvantages

List the disadvantages of any topic or question, and discuss ways of improving them.

Different Uses

How many ways can information learnt about a topic be used?
What are the different uses for any object?

The Brainstorming

Think of as many solutions to a problem as possible. Think of as many ideas on a topic or story as possible.
Use a mind map to record ideas.

The Variations

How many different ways can a problem be solved?